

For the use of the certificates and the QS logos, which are issued together with the QS certificate, the following rules apply:

- The logos must be reproduced in their entirety - including all border lines and colour values. The choice of size is free, the proportions and statements must be retained.
- The logos may be used on business documents, business cards, marketing gifts, catalogues, etc.
- The logos may not be used in a misleading way or imply that the certification applies to activities and locations outside the scope of the certification.
- The logos may not be affixed to products or product packaging, laboratory test reports, calibration certificates, inspection reports or certificates.
- The use is only permitted as long as a valid certification agreement is in place.
